Supplementary Unemployment Benefit (SUB)

UA Local 67 Board of Trustees increase weekly SUB benefit to $175 for 2020.

You can receive $175 each week up to 10 weeks per year. You cannot receive more than $1,750 in a calendar year.

Unemployed Claim

1. Sign the out-of-work list at the local union office and be available for work
2. Submit your EI Regular Benefit Payment details

Sickness Benefit / Maternity or Parental Leave

1. Be unable to work due to a parental leave or an illness or injury that is not related to work and for which you are not receiving UA Local 67 short-term disability (STD).
2. Submit your EI Sickness Benefit Payment details

Apprentice Claim

1. Sign the out-of-work list at the local union office and be attending trade school or a government-sponsored or JATC approved training course related to your trade
2. Submit your Verification of Attendance form obtained from the Registrar's Office

Documents for your claim must be submitted within 90 days of the date you receive your weekly EI payment. Failure to submit your claim within the specified time frame will forfeit your SUB benefits for that week. Claims may be hand delivered, mailed, faxed, or emailed to local67@reliableadmin.com or cathy@reliableadmin.com

Please note:

You cannot receive more than $1,750 in a calendar year.

If you are retired and already receiving (or have received) retirement benefits from any UA sponsored pension plan, you DO NOT qualify for SUB benefits.

You must report any SUB payments as income on your tax return. You will receive a T4A slip each year from Reliable Administrative Services.
